

Dr. V. N. Srivastava, Professor (HR & OD), Centre for Organization Development, is a Ph. D in Management & Labour Studies from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai and M.B.A from Faculty of Management Studies, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi. He has more than 30 years of professional and academic experience in leading management institutes and organizations such as MDI, Gurgaon, IIPA, New Delhi, AIMA, New Delhi, NPC, New Delhi, IIMR, New Delhi IBS Gurgaon. He has been a United Nations Consultant on Institution Building at Wildlife Institute of India, Ministry of Forest & Environment, Government of India and developed HRD Plan document for Madhya Pradesh Forest Department and Maharashtra Forestry Sector as a part of World Bank Forestry projects in 1996 and 1998 and the same was rated by the World Bank as one of the finest HRD plan document in any government department of the world. He has also been a Faculty Associate with Prof. Udai Pareek in the MHA programme of the University of North Carolina, Chappel Hill, for teaching Human Resource Management. His teaching interests are in the area of Organisational Behavior, Human Resource Management, Organisation Development, Training & Development, Performance and Reward Systems, Leadership Skills Change Management, Competency Mapping, Team Building, Conflict Management, Leadership Styles & Effectiveness, Interpersonal Relations, Interactional Styles (Ego Management), etc.

-----**-----