

Prof. Krishnarao, Professor, Centre for Organization Development is an astute HR professional with three decades of experience with diverse industry segments such as, Pharmaceutical, Energy, Engineering, Financial Services, Education, worked with some of the Global Fortune top 100 companies such as AstraZeneca, Chevron, Mylan, besides Indian companies viz., Dr Reddy's Laboratories, Ashok Leyland, KARVY Consultants and Indian School of Business. Been a CHRO since 2006, where he led HR in India, China, APAC region and UAE, besides being an Organization Development Champion for APAC region.

Krishna's core strengths are helping organizations develop the long-term plan for their talent development and management (Strategic Planning). Creating performance-driven organization, improving employee engagement, Auditing of HR processes, Leadership Development & Succession Planning, and Executive Coaching.

A Graduate in Indian Philosophy with master in Human resources from Madras University. Alumnus of Ramakrishna Mission's Vivekananda College and Loyola College Chennai. He holds several certifications, major one's are Occupational Personality Questionnaire by Saville and Holdsworth, UK; Predictive Index by Prandex (USA). Travelled extensively in Asia Pacific, Europe and North America.

-----**-----